

Sagaponack Common School District

Results of lead testing of our single potable water source have been determined to be lead-free in accordance with Federal standards. Please note that this water source is not used for public consumption. We have used and continue to use a bottled water station for all drinking purposes.